

Ali James – Big Beat Entertainment

Ali James is probably one of the most unique all-round comedy entertainers. With a wealth of experience in the entertainment industry, Ali has performed in pop bands and as part of a very successful comedy duo.

Ali very quickly reads her audience to know what comedy will suit the room. She can never be accused of being blue or offensive and doesn't use bad language and is a very funny lady. Her blend of comedy with an excellent singing voice, always leaves her audiences wanting more, whether it is for more laughs or more songs.

A very busy entertainer, Ali's schedule takes her to numerous black tie functions, luncheons, Women's Institutes and Golf Days.

She is also a very entertaining and popular after dinner speaker, where her talk is very much centred around her life growing up and performing in clubland, a very male dominated scene during the seventies and early eighties.
