The big guy with a big voice.

Biggsy always wanted a career in show business and after being in a band, a duo and numerous TV extra work, he decided to focus on his solo career.

Over the years he has developed into a versatile male vocalist who covers most styles of music from the 1950's right up to modern times, including Rock n Roll, Soul, Reggae, Soft Rock, Country, Pop, Ballads and even the odd novelty number. He can carry off people from Bobby Darin, Dean Martin and Ricky Nelson right up to Queen, Kings of Leon and Sean Kingston.

Biggsy has now been on the circuit for over 25 years and is certainly a voice to be reckoned with! He has developed into a very popular act with an unequalled reputation for reliability, you will certainly not be disappointed if you book him as you are guaranteed a great night of entertainment.
