Would you like to enliven your exhibition? Pep up your Party? Wow your wedding guests? Richard's sketches will get everyone intrigued and amazed!

Richard Ellis has been amusing and amazing guests with his quick and accurate sketches for over 20 years. Unlike most types of entertainment, his caricatures are a permanent souvenir of events, from weddings and parties to corporate entertainment and product launches. All Richard's completed drawings are presented in clear display wallets, so they can be kept on show and to protect them from damage.

Richard has worked for many corporate customers including Mars, Volvo, Selfridges, Cadbury, British Army, Royal Air Force, Dell & BT to name a few.

Whether you want to book Richard for a small party, wedding or a large corporate function, you can be sure that he will be the centre of attention and the drawings make great mementos for your guests.

Richard also offers the commission service for a unique gift of a caricature drawing from a photo – great gift idea for retirements, special birthdays or other important life events.
