

Chicken Switch - Big Beat Entertainment

Chicken Switch is a couple of guys making music, entertaining people and having fun.

What started some years ago as a short-term project to have a crack at some cover versions has blossomed into a musically enriching duo who put a lot of thought into creating acoustic versions of familiar songs. Paul and Mike perform them smoothly and affably through an afternoon or evening of laid-back and great fun musical entertainment.

Chicken Switch provided an eclectic mix of favourites from the last 60 years, that will get you singing along, tapping your feet or even on the dancefloor. With a large repertoire, the boys are happy for clients to select up to 20 favourite songs and then use them to build a set list tailored to your own tastes.
