

Dame Edna Everage Tribute - Big Beat Entertainment

Comedian Adrian Doughty is extremely talented at providing fast-paced stand up comedy and brings that talent to his tribute to Australian legend Dame Edna Everage, darlings.

Like a lot of us, Adrian grew up with the constant success and rise of Barry Humphries creation Dame Edna Everage. Adrian observed that Humphries was a master at timing and use of the English language for both innuendo and allowing Humphries to set up his unwitting victims. So when Adrian was looking for an addition to his cabaret show he soon realised Dame Edna would fit the bill.

Over the years this wonderful creation has opened shops, done meet and greets, not to mention was the opening act for London Weekend Television's Stars and their Doubles show. Adrian of course arrived outside the TV centre in a Bentley convertible distributing and throwing gladioli flowers to all the under privileged paupers hoping to catch a glimpse of this megastar!
