A consummate performer whose shows are always fun and engaging.

Mario has been entertaining audiences for over 25 years in bands, duos and solo shows. He started out as a general covers act but concentrates on his tribute shows now, although he still enjoys his Mario Sings shows.

Having performed at venues large and small throughout the UK and abroad, Mario is suitable for any occasion. The huge repertoire he has built up over the years, means his show always has something to appeal to everyone.
