

Spellbound

- Big Beat Entertainment

Spellbound is a variety show combining comedy, magic, illusion and song written for a wide audience and adaptable to work in many different situations. It can also be combined with a vocal spot (lounge, cocktail, cabaret, disco) or also close up and table magic.

Tracie's success on the show Opportunity Knocks, led to television appearances and a full diary of engagements including theatres, clubs and cruises — and even the honour of entertaining at 11 Downing Street, the home of the Chancellor of the Exchequer. A member of the world famous Magic circle –(associate of the Inner Magic Circle with Silver Star), Tracie's breathtaking illusions and wonderfully timed comic delivery have made him one of the most sought-after stage magicians of his generation.

Acting as the perfect foil to Tracie is singer Jennifer Bentley, who has been gracing the stage since she was four years old and has won various awards for her vocal performances, including 'Young Musician of the Year' at the age of 17. She has entertained at a variety of functions, from small intimate affairs, to theatres, cruise ships, and even the Royal Albert Hall.

The comedic chemistry between these two performers, coupled with their individual talents makes for a totally different, thoroughly entertaining show that you really must not miss.
