

Steve Moyse Country

- Big Beat Entertainment

Steve Moyse is one of our most popular general covers acts but his real passion lies with Country music.

Having grown up listening to the likes of Glenn Campbell, Tammy Wynette, Waylon Jennings to name a few, it was here that his passion grew. As a songwriter, he openly admits that this is the genre that inspires him the most.

Whilst on a trip to Nashville, Steve had the honour of covering a George Jones song in Ryman Studios. An honour that he holds very close to his heart.

Steve performs a fantastic country show, covering all the classics as well as more modern tracks and he may even pop in a couple of his own tracks.

Suitable for all kinds of events and venues, Steve will always ensure you have good entertainment.
