

Tank Sherman – Big Beat Entertainment

Top International Comedian.....Hilarious !! His motto is “Laugh often and enjoy everyday of your life – you’ll never get out of it alive!”

Tank was born in Exeter and is proud of his West Country roots. However, he has to get them dyed once a fortnight – thanks to his Hairdresser to the Stars!! He loves making people laugh and that’s about it.

Tank has been on ITV and won a Talent Show. He received great reviews in The Stage Newspaper, and subsequently appeared on numerous TV Shows. He has performed to an audience of a thousand people – and also played to 9 people (holiday camp, Weymouth, 2007) They all laughed....despite there being so few there!!

Tank said “I have had the great pleasure of appearing on a couple of Jethro’s DVD’s and performing with my good mate both live at his club in Lewdown, Devon and on TV. He also headlined shows at The Babbacombe Theatre and did panto with Jimmy Osmond I’ve done lots of things. Tank was also the star act at the Ossington Pigeon Fancier’s Ball, where he had the audience eating out of his hand.

One of his pet hates are acts that think a joke or a funny story needs a swear word and foul language to make it funnier. So with possibly a sprinkling of magic, poetry, a song and sometimes the most ridiculous quiz show you could ever be present at, Tank will have them rolling in the aisles and shouting for more.

As he says “Just remember, laughter is the best medicine (unless you’re diabetic, then insulin is pretty good),”
