

The Bag Rockers – Big Beat Entertainment

A modern twist on traditional Scotland!

The Bag Rockers fuse the Great Highland Bagpipes with classic rock in a way that is guaranteed to get your event rocking. Featuring the best musicians around and 2 acrobatic female dancers, their own inimitable twist on Scottish tradition makes them one of the hottest acts on the entertainment circuit. No stage too big, no event too small - The Bag Rockers will rock you, guaranteed !!!

From Kiev to Kuala Lumpur and everywhere in between, The Bag Rockers have performed their polished show at events around the globe to rave reviews. Even the most critical man on the planet, Simon Cowell, on hearing the band live, couldn't help but be impressed, describing them as 'Great Ambassadors for Scotland'.

In their performances The Bag Rockers utilise elements of pre-recorded material to create the big sound of a full Celtic-rock band but without the stress of a stage full of equipment. This makes them the ideal size to perform as the 'featured act' at awards ceremonies and other events where stage space is at a premium. From a three piece act to a stage full of musicians, The Bag Rockers can provide a bespoke show tailored to suit the needs of your event.
