

The Bluebird Belles

- Big Beat Entertainment

The Bluebird Belles are a professional and versatile vocal harmony trio, specialising in music from the 1940s, 1950s and 1960s and performing in fabulous, glamorous, authentic vintage style. Affectionately named 'The Midlands' Sweethearts', this fabulous retro girl group will dazzle you with bundles of charm from a bygone age!

Inspired by original female trios The Boswell Sisters & The Andrews Sisters, and influenced by later girl groups The Chordettes, The Supremes & The Velvelettes, the girls each have their own unique vocal qualities that blend together to create beautiful, slick vocal harmonies to delight every ear!

With outfits to suit every occasion, the Belles dress to the nines in a huge range of attire including WAAF uniforms, tea, jive and wiggle dresses, and glitzy showstopping numbers for those super special occasions.

The Belles cater to every type of audience by creating bespoke set lists, performing songs from your choice of eras, or a combination of them all! The Belles perform nationwide, and have sung at some of the largest 1940s and vintage events in the country. They are available for all kinds of events private & corporate functions, wartime weekends, vintage fairs and themed events.
