– Big Beat Entertainment

Having performed technology magic for over 10 years, Duncan has established himself as one of the world's leading digital and iPad magicians.

Be it pulling money, balls, pens, coins or phone out of an iPad, printing your company vouchers and producing them from your handheld device, removing the torch from your phone or making a borrowed phone turn to see-through glass, Duncan uses cutting edge technology to make these feats possible. In addition to his close-up act, Duncan also offers a digital illusionist stage show. He is also one of the UK's best mindreaders.

Particularly popular for gala events, balls, weddings and corporate functions.
