

The Denotones

- Big Beat Entertainment

The Denotones are a 5-piece band with a big sound. They are one of the best bands paying tribute to the 60's that you will see and are proud to be keeping the era alive and live.

The band were formed with the aim to play the best 50's & 60's classic music with songs from all genres. You will be guaranteed a performance that is exciting, fun and memorable. They play the songs as close to the originals as possible and hopefully they will bring those memories flooding back. With all members singing backing vocals, they have a very full sound that will have you singing and dancing the night away.

All band members come from various musical backgrounds and have a vast amount of experience gained over many years.

The band perform their shows for many different types of event including parties, weddings and corporate events.
