You've been asked to organise a surprise? You need a comedy act your clients, family or friends will never forget? You need a comedy show also suitable for children?

The Oddballs is a comedy act guaranteed to get the tears rolling down your face. Regardless of the age group or sex of your audience, The Oddballs are side splittingly priceless.

Comprising Adrian Doughty, Danny Blue and Mark Gale. It's good to remember that Adrian and Danny are comedians with years of experience on the comedy circuit and between the three of them they can keep the laughter going all night.

The Oddballs have been all over the world with their saucy comedy show and have performed alongside stars such as Bobby Davro, Jim Davidson and Brian Conley. Love it magazine even wrote an article on their charity fundraising work where they have raised thousands of pounds doing the balloon dance. They have also performed at the London Palladium and were introduced on stage by none other than John Inman.

The Oddballs are a great act to include for hen nights, surprise parties and corporate events. There are 3 packages available:- 4 minute balloon dance & no.1 hit; 20 min club spot incorporating 3 changes or a 1 hour cabaret corporate show including 20 min spot and Adrian and Danny's special humour & slapstick.
