

The Swingettes 1940's & Swing Show – Big Beat Entertainment

Add the wow factor to your event by booking this dazzling trio. Putting the Zing in Swing, the talented retro ladies create and unforgettable experience for your guests that will have them talking for weeks.

Their 1940's show is a nostalgic mixture of British Wartime such as Vera Lynn and Anne Shelton and American Swing featuring the beautiful harmonies of the Andrews Sisters and sensational swing of Glenn Miller. With beautiful costumes and swinging choreography, the girls will make you want to 'Pack up your troubles and Smile'!

This show is available with just the trio and backing tracks or with a full live band at an additional cost. This versatility makes the act suitable for all kinds of venues.
