

Ultimate Olly – Big Beat Entertainment

Jamie was always being told how much he reminded people of Olly Murs and as a fan and cheeky chappy Essex boy himself, decided to set up his show.

Ultimate Olly covers all of Olly's well know hits and definitely brings out his cheeky chappy side. It's a great show and not to be missed. You will definitely be up and dancing and joining in.

Jamie is a well-established professional vocalist and has played at all kinds of venues and events at home and abroad, including Disneyland, Paris, and Barcelona.

He also performs a solo covers show, and other themed shows including A Night at the Musicals and Ultimate 90's Boyband.

A great performer who is suitable for all kinds of events. You will not be disappointed.
